

IXWORTH FILM NIGHT

Friends of Ixworth Library proudly present an exciting new season of feel good films: January - April 2018
in the Village Hall

Thursday 25th January : My Cousin Rachel (12A)

From the novel of Daphne du Maurier, Rachel Wiesz and Sam Claflin star in this highly enjoyable mystery thriller. A young man plots revenge against his late cousin's beautiful and mysterious widow but is finds himself beguiled by her charms. Directed by Roger Miller and set amidst glorious Cornish scenery.

Thursday 22nd February : Victoria and Abdul (PG)

'There is mischief and genuine emotion in abundance as this fascinating true story emerges from the shadows of history.' Radio Times. Judi Dench plays Queen Victoria in the later part of her reign, whose friendship with a young Indian clerk creates tension in the royal household.

Thursday 29th March : The Death of Stalin (15)

Lovers of Armando Iannucci's The Thick of It will be in for a treat with this very dark comedy set in the period following the Soviet dictator's death, as his inner circle vie for power. Featuring standout performances from Simon Russell Beale, Michael Palin and Andrea Riseborough this film, is superbly cast, but may not be to everyone's taste.

Thursday 26th April : Murder on the Orient Express (12A)

This new version of the Agatha Christie, Hercule Poirot mystery draws together a stellar cast including Judi Dench, Derek Jacobi, Johnny Depp, Michelle Pfeiffer and Kenneth Branagh, who also directs. You may already know who done it but this film is worth the ride.
